

Dear Sailors,

We have been informed by the Health Department that cyanobacteria, also known as blue-green algae has been spotted in the racing area.

Lifeguards will be advising not to swim in the sea. You are also advised not drink the water.

After returning from racing remember to wash yourself and rinse your equipment.

If you notice any form of rash please contact the First Aid Point on the ground floor, below the regatta office.

The organising authority

