Discover South Brittany

In the heart of south Brittany in the Morbihan department, where the countryside meets the coast, Lorient Bretagne Sud has a wide variety of landscapes and facilities to enjoy quality leisure time.

In this sea-faring land open on the ocean, nautical leisure activities are the name of the game. On the coast, where fine sandy beaches mingle with the rocks, amateurs of relaxation, sand castles, shore fishing and sailing have everything they are looking for...

At the seaside, there are thousands of things to see and do: the little sea of Gâvres, a natural paradise surrounded by the dunes of the peninsula and the island of Groix, a real jewel just 45 minutes from Lorient, are just two examples.

In the countryside, the green valleys of the rivers Blavet, Scorff and Laita offer a wide choice of outdoor activities. Delve into the heart of the past with circuits and guided tours. The towns of Hennebont, Pont-Scorff and Port-Louis, 2 characterful towns and a craft village, will delight lovers of history. For art lovers, artisans will open their hearts and show off their talents!

Finally, Lorient, a 20th century town of art and history with 60 000 inhabitants, reputed worldwide for its Festival Interceltique, offers all the advantages of a dynamic town, turned to the sea, and a wealth of outlets for shopping lovers.

Unexpected, the extreme diversity and density of its beaches. Unexpected, the constant presence of water in all its forms: sea, bay, rivers. Unexpected, the powerful feeling of adventure combined with the warmth of its hospitality. Unexpected, the light that hits the eyes of even the most indifferent visitor. Unexpected, the weather. This is Brittany, but it's south Brittany... Unexpected, its geography. You were expecting Western France, you also get the Orient.

Lorient Bretagne Sud offers all that you might expected from a region in Brittany. But you may also find what you were not expecting!
